7.2	The board or a committee of the board should:
	a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and	✓	The Audit and Risk Management Committee has established a register of business risks which captures the material business risks faced by the Company. These risks have been graded using a Risk Assessment Matrix and risk management strategies have been developed for identified risks.
	b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	✓	The Board met during the reporting period to review, discuss and update the risks facing the Company and the management of those risks.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose:
	a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; OR	N/A
	b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its risk management and internal control processes.	✓	The Company does not have an internal audit function. The Audit and Risk Management Committee monitor the risks that the Company faces in place of an internal audit function.  The Company's external auditors also review the financial and accounting procedures of the Company in the context of the full year audit of the Financial Statements.  The Committee will recommend the establishment of an internal audit function when the scale of activity of the Company warrants its establishment.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if it does, how is manages or intends to manage those risks.	✓	The Company has material exposure to the following risks: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Currency and commodity price: The Company is exposed to fluctuations in the Australian dollar gold price which can impact on revenue. The Company has a hedging facility with Macquarie Bank which it uses to mitigate against fluctuations in the Australian dollar gold price. The Board reviews the level of hedging at every board meeting to ensure it is appropriate to manage this risk.</li> <li>• Community Relations: The Company has a social responsibility to identify all stakeholders within its community who may be affected by its operations directly or indirectly. A failure to appropriately manage local community stakeholder relations may lead to dissatisfaction that may have the potential to disrupt production and exploration activities. The Company is committed to building and sustaining mutually beneficial relationships within the community by maintaining a high level of consultation with stakeholders and respecting and promoting human and property rights and sites of heritage or cultural significance.</li> <li>• Environmental – The Company is committed to the effective environmental management of all of its activities. The Company recognises that mining and exploration activities are associated with a range of potential environmental impacts and has developed the culture and procedures to maintain the integrity of the environment associated with these activities.</li> </ul>

8.2	A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	✓	The Company distinguishes the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors from that of Executive Directors and senior executives. The Company's Constitution provides that the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors is on a fixed fee basis for time, commitment and responsibility as part of an aggregate remuneration pool approved by shareholders. No incentives are in place for Non-Executive Directors. For information about Non-Executive Director remuneration practice, reference can be made to the audited Remuneration Report set out in the Directors' Report of the Company's Annual Report. The Board is responsible for determining the remuneration of any Director including the Managing Director. The remuneration of the senior executives is proposed by the Managing Director with oversight (and recommendation) by the Remuneration, Nomination and Diversity Committee and approved by the Board. Further details on the Company's remuneration practices with regard to Executive Directors and senior executives are contained within the Remuneration Report which forms part of the Directors' Report in the 2019 Annual Report. The information provided in the Remuneration Report is audited as required by Section 308(3C) of the Corporations Act 2001.
8.3	A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	✓ ✓	The Company's policy on Dealing in Securities prohibits participants from entering into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme. The Company's Security Trading Policy is available in the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website at www.regisresources.com.au
